

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION PROGRAM

May 2009

Dear Freshman:

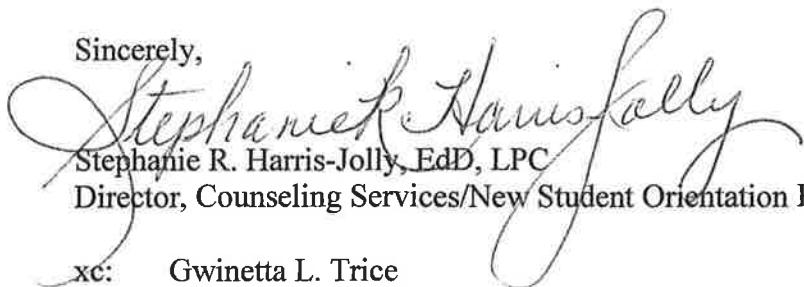

CONGRATULATIONS and welcome to the Albany State University family. It is indeed a pleasure for me to know that of all the schools you could have attended, you chose Albany State University, where Potential is Realized. Your orientation fee has been received and we are sending you a receipt for your records.

We have designed an Orientation program especially for you to inform and enlighten you about university life. Orientation is scheduled for June 25-27, 2009. Enclosed is a Schedule-at-a-Glance. You may move into your assigned residence hall at 7:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 25, 2009 and then report to HPER Gymnasium at 9:00 a.m. (For your room, you should bring a pillow, pillow case, sheets, wash cloth, towel, soap, alarm clock and a blanket, if you get cold easily. All beds are twin size, extra long.) At this time, you will meet your group leader and check-in for orientation. Your parents should report to the ACAD Auditorium at 8:45 a.m. to check-in for their own orientation program which begins at 9:00.

The Freshman Induction Ceremony will be Tuesday, August 11, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. in the HPER Gymnasium. Males should wear dark pants and a tie; females; white or beige dresses.

Once again, welcome to our prestigious ASU family and I look forward to meeting you in June. If you have any questions or concerns feel free to contact Ms. Michelle Mitchell at (229) 430-4667 or e-mail her at michelle.mitchell2@asurams.edu.

Sincerely,
