

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY

- Position: Associate/Assistant Professor of Public Administration
MPA Program
- Effective Date: January 2010
- Salary Range: Negotiable
- Area(s) of Specialization: Training and experience to teach Public Administration courses with the ability in Health Administration and Policy, Public Policy, Public Budgeting and Computer Application. Ability to produce scholarships in Public Administration (e.g. conference papers, published articles, book reviews, etc.)

Major Responsibilities:

The successful applicant will teach graduate – level Public Administration courses such as Health Administration and Policy, Public Policy, Public Budgeting, Computer Applications and other graduate courses in the candidate's field of expertise. Duties include research, student advising, and service on department and university committees and working with community groups and grant writing. The MPA Program is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and (NASPAA).

Qualifications:

The successful applicant must have a Ph.D. in Public Administration, or DPA, or a Ph.D. in Political Science (with 18 graduate hours in Public Administration). Applicants with experience in Public Policy, public service or non-profit management and emphasis in the use of information technology for research and teaching are desirable. The program also prefers candidates who have experience with online course delivery or who are willing to learn.

The Institution:

Albany State University is a fully accredited senior unit of the University System of Georgia. The MPA Program is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration. Faculty members receive all benefits provided by the University System of Georgia, including hospital and major medical insurance, group life insurance and participation in the Georgia Teachers Retirement System, Optional Retirement Plan and Social Security.

Application Procedure:

The application deadline for the position is November 1, 2009 or until the position is filled. Current federal law requires identification and eligibility verification prior to employment. Only U.S. citizens and aliens authorized to work in the United States may be employed. Interested candidates should submit an application, resume, academic transcripts and three (3) current letters of recommendations, with original signatures to:

Office of Human Resources Management
Albany State University
504 College Drive
Albany, Georgia 31705