

ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION

- RANK AND POSITION: Assistant/Associate Professor of General Special Education (tenure track)
- EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2010
- SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience
- RESPONSIBILITIES: Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate/graduate courses, field supervision, advising students, setting up field placements, curriculum development, program assessment/accreditation reports, etc.
- QUALIFICATIONS: Earned doctorate in Special Education from an accredited institution (A.B.D. candidates may apply for the position) is required. Successful university level teaching and supervision experiences; three years of successful work experience with children or equivalent clinical experience serving children with disabilities is also required. A desirable qualification includes public school experience and a demonstrated commitment to scholarly activity (ability to secure external funding support, scholarly publications, and conference presentations). Other desirable qualifications include: demonstration of collegial teamwork, experience in alternative special education delivery systems which integrate special and general education services, familiarity with CEC standards, and cultural diversity.
- Major Responsibilities: The individual filling the position will teach undergraduate and Graduate courses in General Special Education in the Department of Teacher Education with an average teaching load of twelve (12) hours per semester, advise students field supervision, curriculum development, program assessment/accreditation reports, etc. Curriculum development and grantsmanship are expected.
- The Institution: Albany State University is a unit of the University System of Georgia. The College of Education currently has thirty-five (35) faculty members. The College of Education offers Bachelor's, Master's and Specialist degrees and is NCATE accredited with Program approval by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission for Teacher Certification.
- Faculty members receive all benefits provided by the University System of Georgia, including hospital and major medical Insurance, group life insurance and participation in the Georgia Teachers' Retirement System, Optional Retirement Plan and Social Security.
- Application Forms: Applications may be printed from ASU's Website (www.asurams.edu) under the link for Human Resources. Current federal law requires identification and eligibility verification prior to employment. Only U.S. citizens and aliens authorized to work in the United States may be employed. The application deadline for the position is November 6, 2009 or until position is filled. Please send a letter of application, official transcripts, vitae and three (3) current letters of recommendation to:

Human Resources
Albany State University
504 College Drive
Albany, GA 31705